

Ray Picot

I believe in supporting our village and the people who live here. Having lived in Knockholt for 29 years with my family, I have seen many changes in that time. However, those which face us today, arguably have a more long-term impact on the village community, the safety of our children, traffic and transport services. There is also a need for more targeted housing, whilst taking into account our unique environment and fragile greenbelt.